

Put your BILINGUAL SKILLS to Work!

Pursue Certification as a Medical Interpreter

There is a growing demand for certified medical interpreters! If you are bilingual, have good speaking and listening skills, and enjoy working with people, you may have a future as a medical interpreter.

- ✓ Improve access for patients with limited English
- ✓ Prepare for state or national certification
- ✓ Increase your marketability in the health and social services field

HLTH 155 - The Fundamentals of Medical Interpretation

- Winter Quarter 2019 (January 3 - March 23), Thursdays, 5:30pm - 7:30pm
- This is a hybrid course, with one hour of online work each week

This course explores the practice of medical interpretation in healthcare settings and provides skills essential to becoming a qualified medical interpreter. Class taught in English. (Proficiency in English and any second language required.)

REGISTRATION STARTS DECEMBER 1ST

WCC Non-Credit: $179.00

Register through Community and Continuing Education:

www.whatcomcommunityed.com/
or 360.383.3200

WCC Credit: Contact for details

Apply online:

whatcom.edu/get-started/apply-now

Contact Entry & Advising at 360.383.3080

For more information about the class, please contact:

Julie Johnson • jjohnson@whatcom.edu • (360) 383-3189

Whatcom
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

The contents of this publication were developed with funds from the Hospital Employee Education and Training grant 2018-2019.

Whatcom Community College complies with federal and state laws specifically requiring that the College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, national origin, religion, sex (including pregnancy and parenting status), disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, marital status or age in its programs and activities.